Summer Work

@Criminologywyke....Follow us!

Throughout summer the Criminology team would like you to undertake 3 tasks:

1. Newspaper article on an Honour Crime
2. UK crime – table
3. Serial Killer Factsheet

All these tasks link to specific criteria you will study as part of the Criminology course in your first year. In September we start by investigating crimes that are not reported by the victim to the Police. This includes a deep dive into individualistic crimes, including Honour, Domestic Abuse and Hate Crimes. In preparation we would like you to complete the following 2 tasks:

Task 1 – Newspaper Article

Please create a newspaper article (no more than 2 pages long) on honour crime. Your article must include

- Definition of Honour Crime
- Reasons why Honour crimes go underreported to the police
- Statistics on honour crime in the UK
- A real-life case study

Use pictures and format your page to mirror that of a tabloid newspaper.

As part of your first-year studies we deep dive into the world of true crime. In Unit 2 we explore the reasons for criminality... What makes a serial killer? What makes a killer tick? Is a criminal born or made?...

Task 3 – Fact Sheet

Create a fact sheet on a serial, spree, or mass murderer of your choice.

Your fact sheet needs to include:

- ✚ Overview of childhood i.e. relationship with parents

- ✚ Sentences
- ✚ Add Images
